Reading Skills	Level	Your Performance
Reading	High	Test takers who receive a score at the HIGH level, as you did, typically understand academic texts in English that require a wide range of reading abilities regardless of the difficulty of the texts. Test takers who score at the HIGH level, typically <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>have a very good command of academic vocabulary and grammatical structure;</li> <li>can understand and connect information, make appropriate inferences, and synthesize ideas, even when the text is conceptually dense and the language is complex;</li> <li>can recognize the expository organization of a text and the role that specific information serves within the larger text, even when the text is conceptually dense; and</li> <li>can abstract major ideas from a text, even when the text is conceptually dense and contains complex language.</li> </ul>
Listening Skills	Level	Your Performance
Listening	High	Test takers who receive a score at the HIGH level, as you did, typically understand conversations and lectures in English that present a wide range of listening demands. These demands can include difficult vocabulary (uncommon terms, or colloquial or figurative language), complex grammatical structures, abstract or complex ideas, and/or making sense of unexpected or seemingly contradictory information. When listening to lectures and conversations like these, test takers at the HIGH level typically can <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>understand main ideas and important details, whether they are stated or implied;</li> <li>distinguish more important ideas from less important ones;</li> <li>understand how information is being used (for example, to provide evidence for a claim or describe a step in a complex process);</li> <li>recognize how pieces of information are connected (for example, in a cause-and-effect relationship);</li> <li>understand many different ways that speakers use language for purposes other than to give information (for example, to emphasize a point, express agreement or disagreement, or convey intentions indirectly); and</li> <li>synthesize information, even when it is not presented in sequence, and make correct inferences on the basis of that information.</li> </ul>

Speaking Skills	Level*	Your Performance
Speaking about Familiar Topics	Good	Your responses indicate an ability to communicate your personal experiences and opinions effectively in English. Overall, your speech is clear and fluent. Your use of vocabulary and grammar is effective with only minor errors. Your ideas are generally well developed and expressed coherently.
Speaking about Campus Situation	Good	Your responses indicate an ability to speak effectively in English about reading material and conversations typically encountered by university students. Overall, your responses are clear and coherent, with only occasional errors of pronunciation, grammar, or vocabulary.
Speaking about Academic Course Content	Good	Your responses demonstrate an ability to communicate effectively in English about academic topics typical of first-year university studies. Your speech is mostly clear and fluent. You are able to use appropriate vocabulary and grammar to explain concepts and ideas from reading or lecture material. You are able to talk about key information and relevant details with only minor inaccuracies.
Writing Skills	Level*	Your Performance
Writing based on Reading and Listening	Fair	You responded to the task, relating the lecture to the reading, but your response indicates weaknesses such as <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>an important idea or ideas may be missing, unclear, or inaccurate;</li> <li>there may be unclarity in how the lecture and the reading passage are related; and/or</li> <li>grammatical mistakes or vague/incorrect uses of words may make the writing difficult to understand.</li> </ul>
Writing based on Knowledge and Experience	Fair	You expressed ideas with reasons, examples, and details, but your response indicated weaknesses such as <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>you may not provide enough specific support and development for your main points;</li> <li>your ideas may be difficult to follow because of how you organize your essay or because of the language you use to connect your ideas; and/or</li> <li>grammatical mistakes or vague/incorrect uses of words may make the writing difficult to understand.</li> </ul>

This score report provides four section scores and a total score. An analysis of your strengths and weaknesses in English is included. The level pertaining to each skill should not be generalized beyond the performance on this test. Skill levels and their associated descriptions are not intended for use by institutions as part of their admissions criteria and will not be shared unless you grant permission.

Information About Scores: The following scaled scores are reported for the TOEFL iBT test. A total score is not reported when one or more sections have not been administered. These scores have the following ranges:

Institution Codes: The code numbers shown on page 1 of this report are the ones you selected before you took the test. If any institution code you selected is missing, it was incorrect and the TOEFL® Program was unable to send a score report to that institution.

* Skill levels for speaking and writing individual skills are estimates of performance at the item level. The total writing and speaking scaled scores and ranges are more accurate. Therefore it is not appropriate to combine the individual skill levels. Doing so may lead to apparent inconsistencies between the diagnostic feedback and reported writing and speaking scores.

IMPORTANT NOTE TO SCORE USERS: This PDF score report was downloaded and printed by the test taker.
