This is to certify that

NATALYA YERASOVA

attended 118 out of 118 hours of the

IH Certificate Course in the Teaching of English as a Foreign Language to Adults

International House, KIEV

from 30th August to 24th September 1999

and was awarded a certificate in the category: VERY GOOD

*This course was designed for teachers whose first language is not English.
Teaching practice with students of English was a major component of the course.*

Natalya is an effective teacher who made very good progress throughout the course. She quickly grasped the techniques and ideas discussed, and was able to experiment with these successfully in the classroom. She has a confident and friendly manner which enables her to establish a good rapport with students and she engages them in a good variety of language learning activities. Her written and spoken English is of a high standard and she shows considerable potential as a teacher of English as a foreign language.

A PROGRESS REPORT APPEARS ON THE REVERSE OF THIS CERTIFICATE
