With this document we certify that Lev Kalishchuk took part in a project called Local in Global - Prosperity without Growth?. It was a seminar. The project was hosted by Kreisau-Initiative e.V., and implemented in cooperation with EcoVisio (Moldova), Millennium Foundation for Education and Research (Armenia), Association for Democratic Education FAR (Bulgaria), Krzyżowa Foundation for Mutual Understanding in Europe (Poland), and Youth NGO Iskra (Ukraine). The participation was supported by Youth NGO Iskra.

A seminar organised within the Erasmus+ Programme aims to provide a platform for discussion and exchange on the important issues in European youth work or youth policy. Supported by one or more facilitators and often also theoretical inputs, participants contribute to discussions about the development of youth work or youth policy, and exchange good practice on the chosen theme.

Altogether, 30 people took part in the project.

The overall aim and specific objectives of the project:

The guiding question of the seminar was, how there can be a good life for all within the ecological limits of our planet? It offered an opportunity to deepen one's understanding of economic growth, to discover sustainable ways of living and doing economics, and to develop own ideas and network with participants from six different countries.

Main contents and activities of the project:

The seminar actively involved the participants and included a variety of methodological approaches, e.g. theoretical inputs, discussions, reflections, group works, cooperation games, open space and best-practice examples.

MOBILITY OF YOUTH WORKERS

Lev Kalishchuk

PARTICIPATED IN A LEARNING MOBILITY PROJECT

Local in Global - Prosperity without Growth?

THE PROJECT TOOK PLACE FROM 18/05/2019

TO 24/05/2019 IN Riscova, Moldova.

MOBILITY OF YOUTH WORKERS

Learning mobility projects of youth workers support the professional development of youth workers by enabling them to acquire new skills and professional experiences. The projects may include transnational activities such as seminars, training courses, contact-making events, study visits and job shadowing periods abroad. The projects also contribute to strengthening the quality and the role of youth work in Europe.

Erasmus+ is the European Union's programme for boosting skills and employability through activities organised in the field of education, training, youth, and sport. Youth activities under Erasmus+ aim to improve the key competences, skills and employability of young people, promote young people's active participation in the society, their social inclusion and well-being, and foster improvements in youth work and youth policy at local, national and international level.
