

To Whom It May Concern,

I am pleased to write a letter of reference for Mr Sun Zhaoqing, a teacher of the Chinese language at Novopecherska School. For the past seven years Mr Sun Zhaoqing has been teaching Chinese as a foreign language to students aged 10 – 17. Being a Novopecherska School principal I felt fortunate to have him as a member of our team. In the years that I have known Mr Sun Zhaoqing, I have been most impressed by his dedication to work and the quality teaching skills he brought to his position.

In all of my observations of Mr Sun Zhaoqing, he has always demonstrated exceptional teaching skills regardless of his class's age group or diversity of learning levels. Mr Sun Zhaoqing always ensures that his students experience success by challenging their abilities in order to encourage as much growth and development as possible. His students are always treated with great dignity and respect and, as a result, he has an excellent rapport with them. In addition, Mr Sun Zhaoqing also has good working relationships with the parents of his students. He participated in informal parent-teacher interviews, worked on report cards, and met with parents who had requested. Throughout these interactions, he was professional and approachable, allowing for open and constructive discussion about the student at hand. If there is a need, he always contacts the parents and explains the issues or just updates them on the student's success.

Furthermore, Mr Sun Zhaoqing is not only teaching language, but he has also been actively promoting learning Chinese culture. That is why he had a Chinese painting and calligraphy club for all the students to enhance their knowledge and understanding of Chinese art, traditions and customs.

Showing confidence in the use of varied media, Mr Sun Zhaoqing incorporated the use of technology to the best effect.

I can highly recommend Mr Sun Zhaoqing as a Chinese teacher. This committed educator will greatly contribute to whichever school he teaches at next. If you have any more questions regarding Mr Sun Zhaoqing, I would be happy to comply. My email address is: valentyna.khomenko@novoshkola.com.ua
