

English Language and Culture Online 2023: End of Programme Report

Student Name: Katerina Sribna

This transcript outlines the programme components, assessment grade and feedback for Katerina Sribna on the English Language and Culture Programme at the University of York in January 2023.

Programme Basics

- Dates: 16 January - 27 January 2023
- Method of Delivery: Online
- Total Hours: 50
- Attendance: 70%

Programme Components

Language and Skills

Aims

This component aimed to:

- develop students' language skills through a communicative and functional language-based approach;
- develop students' lexical and grammatical range;
- develop students' pronunciation accuracy.

Language and Culture

Aims

This component aimed to:

- broaden students' cultural horizons and raise international awareness and sensitivity to UK culture;
- give students a better understanding of the cultural differences between their home country and the UK;
- give students an insight into local places of interest by means of virtual tours.

Online Cultural Research Project

Aims

This component aimed to:

- develop students' knowledge of British culture;
- provide students with experience of conducting a small-scale research project.

Assessment Overview

There were two parts to the assessment:

- research project presentation - content (group mark)
- research project presentation - skills (individual mark)

Final Grade

Final Grade: A (Very good)

Component	Marks (%)	Weight
Research Project Presentation - Content	39%	50%
Research Project Presentation - Skills	36%	50%
TOTAL (Weighted Average)	75%

Tutor Feedback on Assessment

Research Project Presentation - Content and Skills

You researched British architecture with depth, and cultural and historical understanding. You presented the findings in an engaging manner with different time periods and styles and kept good timing in your presentation. You created an extremely professional website with easy-to-follow links and relevant content for the given target audience. You used positive body language to engage the audience and had very clear pronunciation with good pacing. Your presentation had good signposting to the different parts and you spoke without notes making the presentation engaging and easy to follow.